Dr. Sanjoo Utpure

About the conference:

Purushottam Thote College of Social Work, Nagpur is taking initiative to organize this national conference with joint collaboration of reputed professional organizations i. e. MASWE and NAPSWI in India with a view to discuss new dimensions of NAAC accreditations of Higher Education Institutions (HEI) extensively. The conference aims to discuss various dimensions, challenges and difficulties faced by the higher educational institutions according to the new guidelines and framework. The PTCSWN is hosting this conference only online because of the pandemic situation which we are facing for a long time.

Objectives:

1. To provide a wide platform to discuss and dialog regarding new guidelines and framework of 'NAAC' accreditation.
2. To discuss role of IQAC in good governance and NAAC accreditation of higher education institutions.
3. To discuss various criteria especially innovative practices in social work education.

About the organizers:

Purushottam Thote College of Social Work, Nagpur (PTCSW):

The college was founded in 1993 by the Ganpatrao Thote Seva Sanstha (GTSS). The college is one of the leading social work education imparting institutions in Central India and is affiliated to the Rashtrasant Tukadoji Maharaj Nagpur University, recognized by the Govt. of Maharashtra and accredited with B++ Grade by the National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC) and offers social work courses BSW, MSW and Ph. D.

The College has, over the years, responded to the needs of the poor, the marginalized and the disadvantaged in society. Academic curriculum of the college is designed to equip the students with sound theoretical knowledge about social work, social welfare and development concerns of the poor, and enable the students to develop skills and insights into working with people at the individual, group and community levels, and their representatives, and network with other groups and professionals working on similar issues. The curriculum consists of classroom work, which includes lectures, discussions, presentations, and seminars with subject matter specialists, observation study of social and related organizations, Concurrent and block field work under supervision provides opportunities to develop practical skills in social work.

Maharashtra Association of Social Work Educators (MASWE):

Established on 5th September 1993, the Maharashtra Association of Social Work Educators (MASWE) is the only professional association of teaching staff, non teaching staff and library-staff of Social Work Colleges/Departments in the State of Maharashtra. MASWE is a professional body of creative people which strives to create platform of social work educators, non-teaching employees, students and social work colleges in the state for the development of social work profession. MASWE brings out the "Maharashtra Journal of Social Work" and MASWE Bulletin. MASWE strives to create social consciousness on various issues like Malnutrition, Women's Empowerment, Child/ Human Rights, HIV-AIDS Prevention, Socio-economic Problems of Tribal People and many other problems of public concern. Organized many state-level and national-level Conferences, Workshops, Seminars, and Inter professional dialogues.

MASWE has been making consistent and concerted efforts to enhance the standards in social work education and practice in the state and to highlight the problems of employees of social work colleges in the state.

National Association of Professional Social Workers in India (NAPSWI):

National Association of Professional Social Workers in India (NAPSWI) is one of largest members based organization of professional social workers in the country. Established in 2005, NAPSWI is a non-profit, non-political, national level organization dedicated to the promotion of standard and status of social work profession. NAPSWI intends to promote the social work profession across the country with the aim of improving the quality of services in the social welfare and social development sectors on one hand and to protect interests of social work professionals on other.

NAPSWI believes in shaking hands with different stakeholders-- be it social work educational institutions, government, non-government, civil society or any likeminded.
